

DAY 5: VISIT TO THE DR RADHAKRISHNAN INTERNATIONAL SCHOOL

The delegates visited the Dr Radhakrishnan International School, where Indian culture was showcased through various performances like those of Bhangra and Dandia. The electric atmosphere forced teachers and delegates alike to sway to the tunes of Indian folk music. The delegates were also presented with the opportunity to engage in cultural activities such as kite flying and pottery. Other activities included camel ride, elephant ride and astrology.

DAY 5: ENGLISH PLAY 'GOD'

A play named 'The God' and written by Woody Allen was staged for the delegates. The modern day theatre ridiculed blind religiousness and in the garb of humour, conveyed the message that we should not worry about the end, for we can never decide our own fate. Post this, the guest schools practiced for the cultural night performances that were to be held the next day.

DAY 6: DELHI SIGHTSEEING

On 8th of December 2017 the delegates were taken for a Delhi sightseeing tour. The trip began with a visit to The Humayun's Tomb. The first glimpse of the excellent Persian architecture left all the delegates spellbound. The delegates immediately started scaling the walls of Arab Sarai and started exploring the haunted corners of the tomb.

DAY 6: DELHI SIGHTSEEING

The visit to Lodi garden was followed by a spirit of adventure. The delegates were astounded by seeing the various species of trees, a Rose garden and a green house. They came across the tomb of Muhammad Shah called the Bara Gumbad. As the cameras clicked incessantly the delegates whispered their secrets to the monument promising to be back soon.

Next was the trip to Agrasen ki baoli. The delegates became excited as they reached one of the oldest monuments in the city. As they entered the monument they could see a flight of 108 steep steps leading down to the well. All the students were awe struck by seeing the intricate designs and the beautiful architecture of the monument .

DAY 6 : CULTURAL EXHIBITION AND STALLS

At the cultural night all the countries had setup stalls that showcased their culture, traditional handicrafts and other specialties. All delegates exchanged souvenirs strengthening a bond that extended beyond cultural identities. Each country stood proud of its uniqueness, while still being a part of a connected world.

Following this was the cultural performances by the delegates of all countries. Everyone gathered together to dance and sing . The Germans performed a skit while the South Africans brought the house down with their tap dance. Traditional dances and folk songs from Russia just added to the extravaganza.

DAY 6 : VALEDICTORY FUNCTION

Valedictory Performance

To culminate the event a valedictory function was held on the same evening. Shahnaz Husain and Salman Khurshid were the chief guests on the occasion and delivered a valedictory address on how these summits are helpful and important for the students. Reflections of the summit were presented by the delegates. A photo album and the CDLS brochure were released. The evening ended with a finale where modern school students along with the delegates danced on a Hindi song. Indian delicacies were served for dinner and finally with heavy hearts the delegates left their hosts leaving with them lots of loving memories.
