FILMIT-FILM FESTIVAL

On 6th February 2018 students from Modern School Barakhamba Road participated in the Filmit Film Festival organised by INTACH.

Filmit is a multicultural project funded by the Helen Hamlyn Trust UK.

This project aims at nurturing cultural understanding, care and concern among school children through the exciting experience of making and sharing films.

Our team comprising of Shaurya Kumar and Aaryan Nathani of S3 accompanied by Ms Seema Puri reached India International Centre, Lodhi Road, New Delhi, venue of the 10th Film Festival, where films from several schools of India were being showcased. The children shared their experiences of film making through songs, videos and skits.

Our School has been part of the Filmit programme since its inception and have been uploading numerous films over the years. This year we uploaded five films on the website 'filmit.openfutures.com' of which 'Ugrasen ki Baoli-a Documentary' received the Best Documentary Award. Our School also got a trophy for participation in this year's event which was significant as the programme had successfully completed a decade. Excitement of the team knew no bounds when our School also received a trophy in the special category for the 'Most Consistent Performance'. We felt most gratified as our efforts over the last ten years had been rewarded.

The exultant team returned to School enriched by this unique experience.
