SPIC MACAY

SPIC MACAY runs on the energy of volunteers who come from all walks of life - students, teachers, housewives, professional and retired people, young and old. Nishkam Seva is a key aspect of the movement. Building upon these very ethos of SPIC MACAY, Modern School, Barakhamba Road, hosted the International Dance Day celebration in the Shankar Lal Hall on 30th April 2019. The event marked the gracious presence of some renowned artistes like Smt. Uma Sharma and Smt. Ileana Citaristi and their respective troupes. The programme began with the lighting of the auspicious lamp. Thereafter, the students performed a kathak dance learnt in the five days' workshop organised by SPIC MACAY under the tutelage of Smt. Uma Sharma. Smt. Ileana Citaristi, a Padma Shri awardee and a famous Odissi and Chhau dancer presented a riveting performance and left everybody mesmerised with the grace and finesse of the Indian Dance Form. Principal, Dr Vijay Datta, felicitated the performing artistes with a token of appreciation and congratulated all of them on their stellar performances. ## COMMERCE SOCIETY INTRODUCES BUSINESS CONCLAVE

The Commerce Society conducted its first ever Intra Business Conclave for the students of Class S6. The event aimed to test the acumen and thinking required to be a successful entrepreneur in today's business scenario. The event was conducted on 27th April 2019. Students participated in teams of four consisting of CEO, CMO, CFO and the General Counsel for an Automobile Enterprise. All of them were allotted car companies that were either bankrupt or had declining sales. The students were required to come up with cutting edge solutions to the problems and revamp the company. The Crisis Management event witnessed companies coming up with solutions to a crisis faced by their company and provide immediate solutions. In the event of the Corporate lawsuit, the students were supposed to fight cases to protect their respective corporate interests.

The last event for the day was the Public Relations event, which required companies to change public perception back to favorable after the ramifications of the crisis and the lawsuits have passed. Moreover, every team had a bank account with the Modern Bank and there was an ongoing stock exchange. Students were urged to continuously invest in the market. The event saw the participation of more than fifty students from S6. Principal Dr Vijay Datta, Ms. Jaya Khurana, and Ms. Manpreet Kaur were also present to encourage the students. Ms. Payal Mathur, the Incharge of Commerce Society was the guiding force behind the event, who made the event possible with her zeal and constant efforts. Many school alumni like Nimar Dang, Arnav Gupta, Aditya Shankar Agarwal, Ritvik Vasudeva, and Raghavendra Gupta also contributed to the success of the event.
