AKBAR HOUSE FUNCTION

Akbar House celebrated its Biennial House Function on 10th May 2019. The function was honoured by the presence of Mrs. Shalini Bakshi, Dean Cultural Affairs, Delhi University who was the Chief Guest for the occasion.

The evening commenced with the exhibition, displaying the creative talent of the students. This was followed by traditional lamp lighting ceremony and the Ganesh Vandana. The House Report highlighted the achievements of the House members.

The Ballet presented by the budding dancers of the House gave a message emphasizing our obligations to be good keepers of planet Earth. Students also conveyed how imperative it is to save our environment. The students then enacted the dramatic court-room scene from Shakespeare's famed comedy 'The Merchant of Venice.' The evening came to an end with the entire House coming together and singing the cheerful song, 'Baadal Pe Paaon Hain.' Akbar House function turned out to be a great success and it was highly appreciated by the Principal and the Chief Guest.
