“TOYS FOR ALL” CAMPAIGN

On 24th July 2017, Interact Club launched a ‘Toys For All’ Campaign to collect toys and board games from the students of our school. They were distributed amongst the children of the underprivileged sections of the society. A large number of students of Modern School enthusiastically participated in the campaign and generously contributed their toys and games for the underprivileged children.

Many students went door to door in their neighborhood and collected toys and games. Within a very short duration more than a 1000 toys of various types like cartoon pencil boxes , diaries, as well as educational ones were collected, which will be distributed amongst the underprivileged children.

This campaign aims at spreading joy and happiness amongst a large number of deprived children and also inculcating a feeling of sharing amongst the students
