

JOLLIFI-VACATION!

Dear Parent

The school breaks up for summer vacation on 14th May 2017 and reopens on 3rd July 2017 for all classes. Vacations are a wonderful time for exploring and discovering oneself anew and Delhi lends itself beautifully to self-learning.

A very important part of parenting is involving oneself in helping your kids discover themselves and also learn in the process. It's said that travelling and exploring are the best History, Geography and language teachers. So, dear parents, this summer, take your kids to museums, theatres, picnics, heritage walks. Get them and yourself out and visit lesser known monuments, encourage them and join them as they research on the monuments you plan to explore. Join them on the various walks organized by various people and organizations and while learning about the heritage, enjoy your time with them which will never return. Let's join our children and do something offbeat and rediscover our childhood as well our kids!

Let's read together. Various Book Stores and groups organize reading sessions and invite authors during the season. Explore the groups Delhi Book Lovers Group, Reading Caterpillars, Readers' Club of Delhi to know more. Do take your kids along to visit and explore the mysterious, majestic world of make-belief, history, fantasy, biographies and so much more and discover the joys of reading in the comforts of your chilled rooms with a chilled drink. There are multiple spin-offs of reading: strengthening of language skills, therefore, improvement in other subjects, sparking of imagination and ideas, calming influence in these times of constant agitation and distraction, improvement in general knowledge, and above all, a subtle refining of character.

Some suggested books are--- Mahabharata by Devdutt Patnaik and Namita Gokhale, Feluda Novels by Satyajit Ray, Novels by Ruskin Bond, Roald Dahl, Enid Blyton, Nancy Drew and Hardy Boys Novels, Novels by R K Narayan, Treasure Island by R L Stevenson, We the Children of India by Laila Seth, Chicken Soup series, various wonderful books by Amar Chitra Katha, Tintin, Asterix and many more. Hindi---Short stories by Premchand, Short stories by Mahadevi Verma, Amar Chitra Katha, Champak, Nandan...yes, they are still there and still wonderful! Do look into the Sandesh magazine for suggested reading list for your kids.

Netflix is here in India! Use it to your advantage. The visual medium is the best medium to impart effective learning. Let your kids watch some wonderful movies like...

Pay it Forward, Life of Pi, An Inconvenient Truth, The Boy in the Striped Pyjamas, The Bicycle Thief, Born Free, Sound of Music, How Green was my Valley, It's a Wonderful life, If You Love This Planet, Revanant, Murder on the Orient Express, The Shallows

Watching a play is an experience in itself. There is nothing like watching the story unfold before your eyes as the characters unfold a magical world before them. We are lucky to be in Delhi, where the theatre scene is vibrant. Do take your child to watch a play to any of the numerous theatres in Delhi. Open the newspapers and decide which play it is going to be this summer. Alternatively, join a theatre group to learn the nuances of acting, be it the Sriram, Barry John's or Atelier who all have wonderful options for various age groups.

We look forward to having them back with us in July. In the meantime, take good care of them.

Regards

Principal
