

Ji-Jaisi Aapki Maezi - a play by Nadira Babbar & Ekjute

The Pran Sabharwal Foundation in collaboration with The National Commission for Women is sponsoring the play "Ji - JaisiAapkiMarzi".

The play is a hard-hitting satire on Gender issues, which are particularly important in today's society.

The Foundation, by sponsoring the play, wants to sensitize the younger generation to such issues, so that as they step into the real world, they are better equipped and informed to be responsible citizens.

We hope this small beginning will lead to a sustained effort to bring the spotlight on Gender issues, to make society better, as a whole.
