MODERN LEAVES A MARK

Two students from Modern School, Barakhamba Road on behalf of the Nature Club, participated in the online Quiz, Saksham, a National Competition , organized by the Petroleum Conservation Research Association (PCRA), under the aegis of Ministry of Petroleum and Natural Gas, Government of India. Questions in the quiz pertained to Fuel Conservation, Environment, General Studies and General Knowledge.

The Modern School team was adjudged, the District Level Winner of the competition and went on to represent the state at the National level. Pradyumn Arora (S6I) and Agrim Jain (S3B) were awarded a cash prize of ₹3000 each, and a certificate by PCRA. The competition was organised to raise awareness among the youth, about practical conservation tips for the conservation of Petroleum products in industrial, transport, agriculture and domestic sector, and how to apply such tips in their daily lives.

A DECISIVE VICTORY

Modern School, Barakhamba Road was awarded the "OVERALL BEST SCHOOL DELEGATION" at Amity International Model United Nations held from 14th to 16th October. It was one of the largest conferences that hosted delegates, not only from India but also, international delegates from countries like France, Spain, Finland, Slovakia and Russia. Under these unforeseen circumstances, the 13th iteration of AIMIN took place online. With more than 300 participants, the event was an absolute display of inspired diplomacy while navigating through international issues and finding feasible solutions. Some of the brightest minds of the MUN society represented Modern School, Barakhamba Road at AIMUN. They showcased their understanding of International Law and Relations while exhibiting eloquence, presence of mind, and leadership skills.

A CLEAN SWEEP

Modern School, Barakhamba Road was awarded the "OVERALL BEST SCHOOL DELEGATION" at Singapore International Model United Nations. Modern School made a clean sweep with students winning awards in each committee.
