‘SAMAANTA’: The Round Square Virtual Event

On 7th July 2021, Dhirubhai Ambani International School hosted a Round Square Event ‘Samaanta’ to put an end to gender inequality. The Modern School Delegation comprised of Angad Wadhwa (S6-B), Vanya Goel (S6-J), Anurag Satyarthi (S7-A), Mansha Agarwal (S5-B), Aryan Shiv Talwar (S7-A) and Round Square Rep. of Modern School Ms Shalini Dahiya. The keynote speaker of the event was a renowned director and film producer of a film like ‘Daughters of Mother India’, Ms Vibha Bakshi who not only described her journey of shooting films but engaged in conversations about achieving a gender-neutral society, where every human has equal rights, opportunities, respect and access to justice.

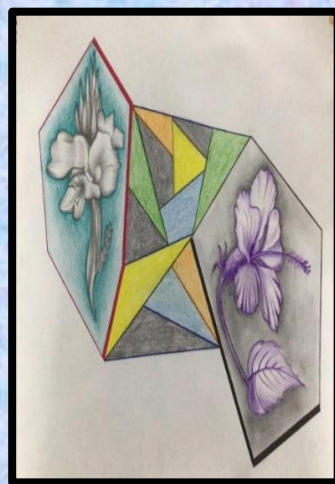

The symposium also focused on the inclusion of other marginalised sections of the societies like the transgenders and members of the LGBTQ+. Apart from the subsequent question and answer session, all the participants were divided in their Baraza groups which was the platform for a wider discussion; the participants presented their stories, opinions and how they infer the idea of gender equality to bring about a positive change in the society. It was an interactive session where the students were not only exposed to great knowledge but also displayed their intentions to break the chains of gender inequality and discrimination.
