Round Square Virtual Conference Uniform Or Not?

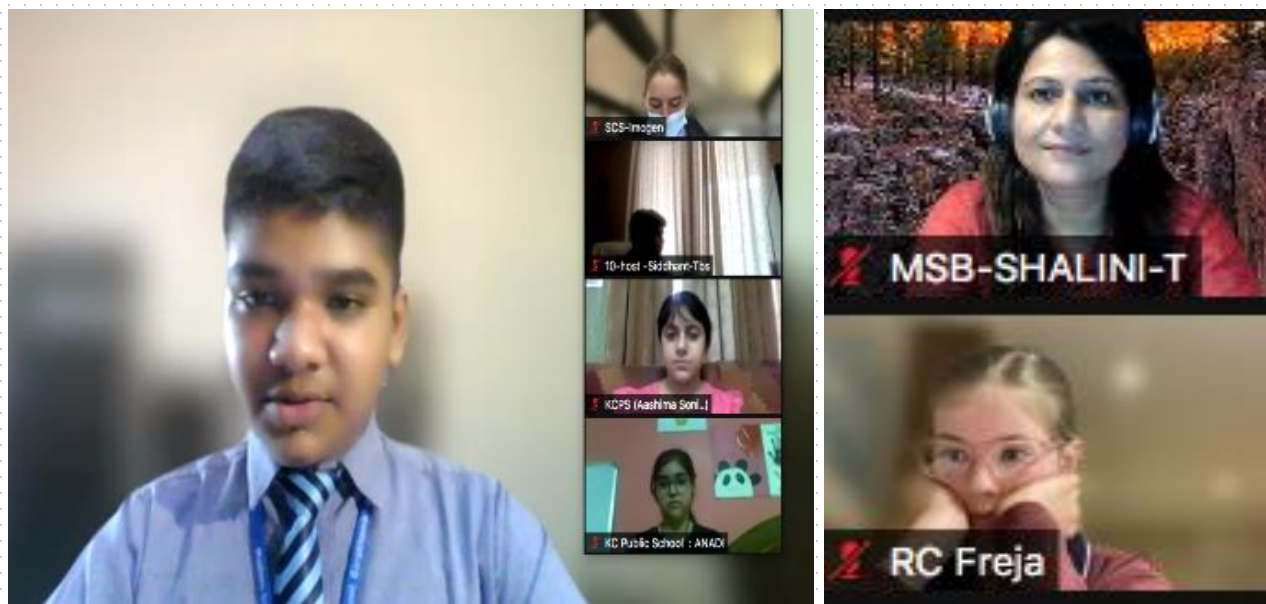

“Together we can make a difference”, this quote perhaps sums up the spirit of Round Square. The Round Square network encourages member schools to coordinate on a wide range of collaborative programmes. It helps develop global competence, character and confidence in the students. The Round Square Conference was organised by St. Stithians Girls’ College, Sandton, South Africa on 15th September 2021. Vania Aggarwal(S6B), Shreya Sethi(S6D), Vanya Bansal(S6J), Devika Tikku(S6J) and Kaavya Gupta(S6B), represented Modern School in this prestigious event, mentored by Ms Shalini Dahiya, RS Representative Modern School, Barakhamba Road.

During the Baraza session the delegates expressed their views on how the uniform can be improved and be made more inclusive. Finally, the representatives of the host school, delivered a vote of thanks and declared the conference closed. Everyone participated with great enthusiasm. Overall, it was a fun-filled experience.

Round Square Conference Sustainable Living and Waste as a Resource

Students attending the conference

The British School, New Delhi, hosted Round Square Virtual Conference on 8th September, 2021, for students aged 11 to 13. This Conference was attended by various schools all over the world. The Modern School delegation comprised: Amaira Jain(S2F), Reanna Jain(S2C), Aarav Budhiraja(S3G), Amartya Aggarwal(S2G), Agastya Aggarwal(S3H) and Vardhan Aggarwal (S3F).

The delegates were addressed by Mr Mehul and Ms Rebecca from Bare Necessities, an organization which creates eco-friendly, handcrafted, zero-waste products. The delegates were taught the meaning of sustainability, linear economy, decomposition etc. They also performed few sustainable DIY( Do it yourself) activities like making vegetable paint, twig and leaf brushes, orange peel diyas and bird feeders.

The delegates of Modern School shared about the contributions of the Nature Club and how it has always been committed to sensitizing its students on issues relating to environment. It was a great learning and highly enriching experience for all the delegates.

Modern School unequivocally triumphant at eSAIMUN

SAI Model United Nations Society, attended SAIMUN organised by Sai International School in association with Round Square Schools on 30th and 31st July, 2021. Prestigious schools from across the globe and India attended the Conference. It not only challenged the delegates' debate and analysis but also their leadership, line of reasoning and collaboration skills. Our students, under the guidance of their mentor, Ms Sonia Kapoor, showcased their vast skills of research, diplomacy, debate and negotiation.
