Students' engagement during the Campaign

ONE MILLION BEEHIVES CAMPAIGN

Six Modern School, Barakhamba Road delegates represented the school in the Lesego Serolong's One Million Beehives virtual campaign, on 1st March, 2022. The delegates who represented our school were: Amaira Jain(S2F), Cheshtaa Sharma(S3D), Divij Wahi(S3E), Riddhima Sabharwal(S3F), Nergis

Malhotra(S3E) and Arshia Goel(S4D). During the 90-minutes session, the delegates were first addressed by the keynote speaker and a former pupil of Round Square School Tiger Kloof, Lesego Serolong. She discussed how the organisation, Bee Loved, seeks to address issues related to dwindling honey bee population and redresses the same by manufacturing and distributing one million hives by 2025, to replenish honey bee populations in Africa and eventually all around the world. After the insightful session, everyone was divided into Baraza rooms where ice breaker games were played and several ideas were discussed on fundraising events such as bake sales, carwashes, online websites for donations, selling off second hand clothes, used books fundraiser, growing bee-friendly plants, sponsored bike riding and many more. In the end, delegates shared some effortless honey-based recipes with each other to enhance self-confidence. The delegates were trained by Ms Shalini Dahiya and accompanied by Ms Divya Aggarwal.

Overall, it was an enriching experience for everyone. This interactive event helped the youth to become assertive and aware of the alarming environmental concerns around them. Lesego Serolong graced herself as an inspiration through her initiatives to make a collective positive difference around the globe.

ROUND SQUARE POSTCARD

Picture postcard from the session

Okinawa Amicus International School hosted a Round Square Postcard session on 2nd March, 2022, for Middle Wing students. Six delegates who represented Modern School, Barakhamba Road were: Ayaan Ahluwalia(S2A), Rythma Rewal(S2A), Sairaah Luther(S2C), Amaira Jain(S2F), Diya Khatri(S2F) and Vihaan Singh Oberoi(S2G). The students were trained and accompanied by Mr Nitish Chandela. The theme for the event was “Masks around the World.”

Initially, the delegates were given an introduction by the hosts followed by a small discussion about the topic. Furthermore, everyone was assigned their respective Baraza rooms to ponder over the questions which were given beforehand to the delegates, for an in-depth discussion over the call. There were contrasting responses for every region, majorly depicting people acting in accordance with the guidelines. Lastly, one member from each Baraza group concluded the responses in the main session.

It was a short but an informative session for the delegates, who were able to gain knowledge regarding the changing norms of the pandemic.

GRAND HORIZONS-An Art Collaboration with Wycliffe College, UK

It is only by drawing often, drawing everything, drawing incessantly, that one fine day you discover, to your surprise, that you have rendered something in its true character.

The delegates worked together to curate a piece that reflected the original painting and the final artwork was completed by putting together the distinct pieces. The activity provided the participants with an enriching platform and offered them with an experience of a lifetime. It helped the delegates to foster international brotherhood. It was a great learning experience for the students.

Modern School, Barakhamba Road joined the 'Grand Horizons', an art collaboration initiated by Wycliffe College, United Kingdom, as a Round Square collaborative activity from the month of January to March.

The delegates were asked to recreate a given painting in an innovative way. The painting was divided in twenty-one parts, and each student was given one particular part of the painting. Each of the twenty-one parts was joined together to form the complete painting. It was a unique painting by David Hockney.

The twenty-one participants- Labhya Aggarwal(S1A), Florence Rose(S1A), Ada Kashyap(S1B), Pranav Aggarwal(S1E), Avni Parak(S1H), Kaavya Kukreja(S1B), Myraa Kaur Anand(S1C), Myra Agarwal(S2B), Sonika Mehta(S2A), Kushagra Manchanda(S2D), Saanvi Jain(S2F), Sudiksha Kumar(S2F), Zaina Sethi(S2G), Tvisha Gupta(S2E), Savar Sood(S2F), Aarna Mittal(S2E), Ayaann Kalra(S3H), Aarish Jain(S3H), Devina Verma(S3A), Cheshtaa Sharma(S3D) and Parth Satija(S3D), re-created David Hockney's 'Grand Canyon' art work. The students were instructed and assisted by Mr Rajan Nayak, under the mentorship and guidance of Round Square Representative Ms Shalini Dahiya.

SECOND ROUND OF PREBOARD EXAMINATION TERM II

Modern School, Barakhamba Road is going to conduct Second Round of Preboard Examination Term II for grade S7 for the academic session 2021-2022. The Second Round of the examination will commence from 13th April, 2022. The assessment will be wrapped up by 27th April, 2022.
