The Pre-Conference task given to the students was to make two PowerPoint slides or images showing 1) The student's identity answering the question "What do YOU think makes up your identity?" 2) The diversity of the people in the student's country "What makes the people of your country diverse?"

The Conference began with the host school giving everyone a warm welcome and briefing the delegates about their school. The delegates also played a quiz about England. Thereafter, the delegates talked about how diversity is celebrated in their country and showed how diversity is important through their slides as well.

It was a great learning and highly enriching experience for all the delegates.

During the Conference, the hosts introduced the children to boarding life and then the students were divided into breakout rooms. They discussed their boarding experience, what they like most about it, the difficulties and experience during the pandemic. Some of the common things concluded were that in boarding schools everyone is always very helpful to each other and they become like a family and celebrate festivals together. Later the students were sent back to the main meeting where some of the photos from each school were shared on the screen. The students discussed the images and how it made their school special. Our school submitted images representing Hundred Years of Modern School and various special functions and events taking place for it.

The delegates enjoy such experiences. They get to interact with international students and learn about the ways they live and look forward to such sessions.

THE GLORY OF MODERN

100th Year of Modern just passed, it's the moment to be proud of our past
For wherever we go, it is true, nothing shines brighter than the Khadi Blue.

But before we look far ahead, to the years that are about to come
Let us remember and cherish, the decades that Modern has seen instead.

Every structure is saga, each brick has a story to tell
Every desk has a memory to share, each classroom has a canvas to display.
When listened carefully, the glory unfolds which lies below
And how can one miss the fighter plane that steals the show.

The blue blood which is flowing in the veins of every modernite
Is as deep as the ocean and as high as the sky
Has become more precious with every year passing by.

Let's salute these glorious hundred years and store these memories deep inside
And greet the coming years with joy and pride.

This sketch symbolizes unity, equality and peace. The Eye represents our mindset and our way to see life and its beauty. The Eye is still seeking the world with peace and divine love for all.

Drawing by NAVYANSH PANT (S6G)

The boy on the left side in the drawing symbolizes innocence and the clown is the personification of growing up. The clown gives the boy a balloon to signify the appealing side of adulthood.
