ROUND SQUARE POSTCARD

A delegation of six students from Modern School, Barakhamba Road, attended a Postcard Round Square Conference hosted by Godspell College on 6th July, 2022. The theme of this 90-minutes virtual Conference was 'Music and Culture'. A team of musically inclined students of grade S7 was escorted by Ms Shalini Dahiya. The delegates included Maira Aggarwal(S7A), Ira Agrawal(S7B), Ayaana Jain(S7J), Krishna Mittal(S7E), Sambhav Baxi(S7J) and Rhea Sachdeva(S7E).

The conference began with the presentation of mesmerizing collages prepared by participating schools. This was followed by enriching videos that showcased music from different countries. This created an energizing atmosphere for all the delegates. Followed by the videos, the students were allotted their respective breakout rooms.

The virtual sessions provided students with a unique platform to discuss and deliberate the theme at length. After the introduction and ice-breaking rounds, the delegates put forward their interpretation of the true relation between music and culture. The delegates, with great vigour and enthusiasm, also shared their own experiences with music. These interactive sessions enabled students to engage in meaningful discussions with like-minded peers and encouraged them to share their ideas on the topic at hand. To conclude the Round Square event, the students from all the informative sessions shared their learnings. The Round Square event was an insightful, engaging and informative experience for the students.
