Students of S3 gave a small demonstration on the functioning of Microbit and its use in coding and AI. The Modernites feel obliged to Principal Sir and the teachers for giving them the opportunity to engage on the international platform.

INTACH TECHNICAL WORKSHOP

The visit to INTACH for the Filmit workshop was very informative, educational and interesting. With an introduction to INTACH and its many duties, events and goals, the organisers also enlightened the students on the importance of preserving monuments, art, and artifacts from the past which define our culture. The students learnt a lot about the structure of a short film and how to engage audience through storyline, visuals, and audio. This workshop not only covered the basics of shooting a film, but also instructed the students on how to edit and format a short topical video.

Organisers gave many helpful tips on how to improve the sound quality and prevent background noise, hold a camera steady without a tripod, and positioning a subject to filmmaking. The students understood different kinds of shots, angles, and techniques. This remarkable workshop at INTACH has enhanced the student's filmmaking skills and has increased their passion for videography. The workshop was attended by Zara Vickers (S3G), Ishan Singh (S3A) and Pranay Suri (S2C) along with Ms Priyanka Saini.

ROUND SQUARE CONFERENCE CALL

Round Square Zoom Postcard

On 27th July, 2022, six students of Modern School ,Barakhamba Road, Manya Narula(S6B), Kirat Khanna(S6J), Krisha Kapoor(S6J), Sana James(S6J), Sukoon Kaushal(S6J) and Surina Wadhwa(S6J) attended a 60-minute call that brought together eighty-five participants from four countries namely India, Kenya, Pakistan and South Africa for the Round Square Zoom Postcard, hosted by Bridge House School, South Africa. The theme of the conference was 'I read, I heard, I said, I am'. Science has confirmed that personal experiences and insights into the lives of others, through language, literature, music, artworks etc. are extremely influential. These audio-visual inputs shape our ideas and notions. Having grasped this crucial message Modernites eloquently and enthusiastically contributed to the numerous discussions that broke-out during the event. Before the call, each participating delegation had been asked to create their own playlist of music, books, podcasts and videos that inspired and influenced them. Participants were encouraged to watch the TED talk ‘The Danger of a Single Story’ by Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie. The students were greatly enriched by this thought- provoking, informative and friendly session.
