Round Square Post Card Conference- Tall Tales, Folklore and Culture

‘You never know what you may find when you look under the covers, the grandmother or the wolf.’

On 15th June, 2022, the students of Modern School, Barakhamba Road, took the opportunity to take such stories to a wider audience through the virtual Round Square Conference on the topic ‘Tall Tales, Folklore and Culture’.

Round Square call was hosted by The Rockport School in Northern Ireland. There were participants from schools of India, Argentina, Ireland, Kenya, Lomé, Perú, South Africa and UAE. Modern School, Barakhamba delegation comprised six students - Anahita Wadhwa (S2D), Naman Khanna(S2D), Zara Javed(S4A), Arhaan Gupta(S4B), Devasya Agarwal (S4B) and Nergis Malhotra(S4B). The students were mentored by Ms Shalini Dahiya and accompanied by Ms Divya Agarwal to the conference.

As the Pre-Conference task, all participants were required to send in a slide or two illustrating a story or tradition from their country. As always, the Modernites present their best foot forward and gave an excellent presentation.

The exchange of stories ranged from Indian tales of Prince Siddhartha & The Swan, Vikram & Betal to the Loch Ness Monster of Argentina. The session was indeed enhancing and enlightening. Attending the Round Square inspired students from across the globe to continue the tradition of spreading folklore far and wide.

It was an interesting and invigorating international experience.

Round Square Virtual Conference

The Round Square Virtual Conference titled, “Our Environment: A Responsible Legacy” was organised by the Newcastle Grammar School Australia, on 8th June 2022. The students representing the Modern School delegation were Myra Rewal(S1F), Sumair Sidhanshu Chopra(S2C), Naman Khanna(S2D), Anahita Wadhwa(S2D), Rythma Rewal(S3A) and Amaira Jain(S3F). The students were mentored by Ms Shalini Dahiya and accompanied by Ms Divya Aggarwal.

The students were addressed by the Keynote Speaker, Cherry Sung, a youth environment activist from South Korea, the winner of the 2020 Global Social Leaders Competition and one of the 2021 International Young Eco Heroes. As a Pre-Conference task, each delegation was asked to create a collage that has connection to global challenges and the most important environmental initiatives local to them.

Later the delegates were divided into breakout rooms where they started with an introduction and fun questions. Then the students were asked to explain the collages sent by their respective schools. All students actively took part in the questions presented by the hosts.
