Circle of Life

Artwork by Sara Jain S4A

The little jars of honey and the baskets filled with bread
Are now pushed far away in a dusty shelf instead The innocent laughter of those six year olds who used to run around Is dearly missed, but now we seldom hear that sound

What happened? Someone asked us, not knowing our silenced cries
They grew up, we answered, their reflections still dancing in our eyes Time is cruel, it passed without whispering in our ear
We lost a few, some went away, we're the only ones still here

Nothing lasts forever, don't fall for that vicious lie Hold on to what is happy, you'll lose it soon no matter how much you try Watch every sunset, take every stroll, crack every silly joke you can Because none of this, or anything else, is ever coming back again
