INAUGURATION OF THE CENTENARY BLOCK

Remarkable moments during the august occasion

Modern School, Barakhamba Road, celebrated the inauguration of the Centenary Block on 12th January, 2024. The ceremony steeped in the school's century-old legacy, commenced with a powerful reminder of the institution's guiding principles— "Nyaymatma Balheenien Labhya," highlighting the importance of resilience in the pursuit of self-realization. The grand occasion marked the dedication of the recently inaugurated structure as a girls' hostel, signifying a dedication to equal education. It will serve as the home for the MIE-Modern Institute of Education, embodying the belief that knowledge flourishes through dissemination. This progressive step aligns with Modern School's dedication to fostering an inclusive and supportive learning environment for all students.

Madam Ambika Pant, Secretary, Board of Trustees, Modern Schools, and Mr Ashok Pratap Singh, Former President, Board of Trustees, Modern Schools shared their insights, emphasizing the pivotal role of the Centenary Block in the school's journey. Principal, Dr Vijay Datta acknowledged the collective efforts that have shaped Modern School into an epitome of holistic education.

Notable glimpses from the esteemed celebration

Choir during the melodious performance

The event unfolded through a heartfelt rendition of Rabindranath Tagore's "This is my prayer, my lord," establishing a profound connection to the school's illustrious history. The choir's performance of 'Seasons of Love' underscored the significance of the red bricks and the stories they encapsulate.

The ceremony concluded with a sense of pride, as the Centenary Block stands as a testament to the school's enduring commitment to education and self-realization, marking the beginning of a new chapter in its storied history. The Centenary Block will create a space where students can thrive and contribute to the legacy of excellence that Modern School embodies. It echoes the broader societal push for gender equality, and Modern School is poised to set an inspiring example in this regard.
