European Union Art Installation Project

A team of five students from Modern School, Barakhamba Road, comprising of Siya Kashyap(XII-I), Avisha Goel(XII-I), Shrija Jain(XII-J), Sakshi Ramesh(XI-I) and Aadviya Gulati(IX-E) participated in 'EU Goes to School' project organised by the European Union Delegation (EUD) to India in collaboration with Delhi Street Art (DSA). Keeping in view the notion of Sustainability, the students created art installation on the theme of Refuse-Reduce-Reuse-Recycle-Repurpose using variety of waste material like old headphones, plastic bags and bottles, broken windshields etc.

The installation was unveiled on the 23rd January, 2024 by H.E. Mr Hervé Delphin, Ambassador EUD to India and Dilli Haat officials, for which the mentor Ms Aradhana Gupta and students were awarded certificates by the EUD Ambassador and other dignitaries. Located at Dilli Haat, the installation is now a gift to the capital city, reminding present and future generations of how vulnerable our environment is and how dependent we are on it. The project was a great learning and it helped students delve deep into the thoughts of constant threats against our environment.

Tamana Chona's Art Exhibition

Modern School Delegation at Tamana Chona 's Art Gallery

Twelve Students of Modern School, Barakhamba Road, went for an art exhibition organised at India Habitat Centre, New Delhi by Tamana Chona from 10th to 13th January, 2024. Four teachers, Ms Aradhana Gupta, Mr Rajan Nayak, Ms Shweta Kapur Grover and Mr Amandeep, accompanied the students. The students got to see the play of elements of art in a variety of styles and enthusiastically participated in a question answer session thereafter conducted by the teachers.

HT Pace Literature and Culture Fest, 2023

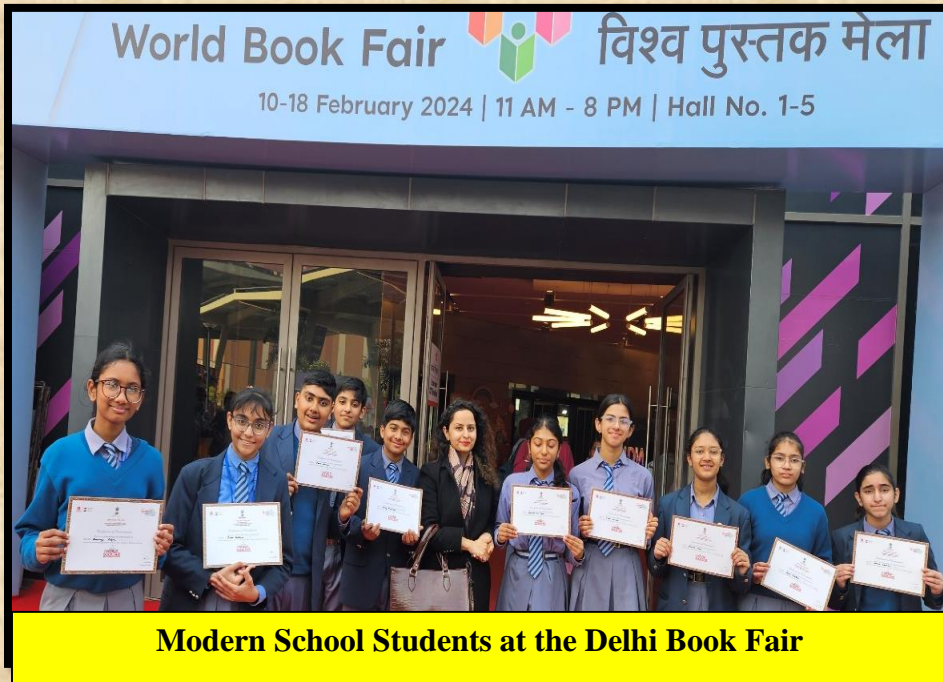

Modern school students with the renowned author Jeff Kinney

Modern School, Barakhamba Road, consistently prioritizes, providing enriching learning experiences for young minds, especially through encounters with esteemed authors, fostering a passion for reading and writing. This commitment was evident during the HT Pace Literature and Culture Fest, 2023 held on 14th December, 2023 at the LTG Auditorium, New Delhi, featuring the 'Gregsapace' event with the celebrated author of 'Diary of a Wimpy Kid,' Jeff Kinney. Students of Modern School extended a warm welcome to Jeff Kinney during the inaugural ceremony. The event marked the launch of the highly anticipated eighteenth book, 'No Brainer', from the iconic 'Diary of a Wimpy Kid' series.

The interactive session was a blend of engaging games that captured the students' attention. Jeff Kinney, in a candid dialogue, shared his personal journey - from harbouring aspirations to publish comics in newspapers to ultimately achieving the status of one of the best-selling authors. His story showcased remarkable resilience in the face of rejection during his college years, serving as an inspiration and symbolizing unwavering dedication to his goals. In the spirit of inclusion and generosity, Jeff Kinney emphasized during the event that "Everyone is a winner." All participants received goodies and mysterious bags filled with a variety of captivating books and exciting prizes, which was a memorable experience for everyone.

The Delhi Book Fair: A Reading Rampage

Students of Modern School, Barakhamba Road, visited the World Book Fair organised by National Book Trust, India and co-organised by ITPO, on 15th February, 2024. They were escorted by the Librarian Bhavna Hingle. Students explored the books, from small booksellers to famous publishers like Scholastic, Bloomsbury and Penguin. The fair offered many activities to participate in as well, such as bookmark designing, postcard making and a storytelling session. They also enjoyed the International Event Corner, where they witnessed some book launches, panel discussions and literary programmes by foreign exhibitors. It was an enriching experience for the students.
