SUBHASH HOUSE FUNCTION

On 5th April, 2024, the students of Subhash House presented a brilliantly performed House Function under the guidance of their House masters Ms Seema Gupta Sahi, Ms Simmi Khera and Ms Minakshi Chandola. The event was honored by the presence of Mr Devesh Kumar Mahla, IPS, who has done meaningful work in various parts of the country.

The play, titled 'Dastaan E Bose', focused on Netaji Subhash Chandra Bose, touching every milestone of his life. The students magically recreated Netaji's journey and rejuvenated a love for the country, its freedom fighters and its people. It also depicted some strong characters from India's pre-independence era such as Mahatma Gandhi, Jawaharlal Nehru, Adolf Hitler and many more. The ballet effectively weaved the narrative, infusing a sense of patriotism among the spectators.

The House Song 'Kadam Kadam Badhaye Ja, Khushi Ke Geet Gaye Ja' created a sense of unity among the students. The exhibition and all the performances were applauded by the

ROUND SQUARE ZOOM POST CARD CONFERENCE

The World Is One Divine Family – Vasudhaiva Kutumbakam

On 10th April 2024, the SAI International School organised an online Round Square Conference on Zoom platform, which brought together around 110 participants from eighteen schools in four countries including China, India, Pakistan, and South Africa.

Anahita Wadhwa (IX-E), Naman Khanna (IX-B), Sahana Abbi (IX-B), Yashas Goel (IX-C), Vrinda Gupta (IX-A) and Zoya Vickers (IX-A) represented the Modern School delegation in this event. They were accompanied by their teacher, Ms Shalini Dahiya.

In the pre-conference task, the participants prepared a short presentation of what unity meant to them in the context of a global family. Modern School students shared several thought-provoking ideas and shone through the activity.

In the next phase, students were led into different baraza groups where they were engaged in interactive sessions. They stressed on the need for integrity in the world. They discussed strategies for the same and appreciated the fact that all humans, are children of the same Mother Earth.

In the end, all the participants resolved to work together, towards promoting unity at personal and institutional level, believing that even though humans are not united by faith, they can be united by love.
