Modern School, Barakhamba Road, was honoured with the Overall Trophy for Best Delegation, marking a rewarding experience for the students.

Modern School, Barakhamba Road, began with its Annual Summer Break from 18th May, 2024. Treasuring the commitment of the school to achieve academic excellence and holistic student development, extra classes are being organised in the Middle Wing, the Secondary Wing and the Senior Wing during the summer break.

These sessions aim to provide students with additional support in their educational journey. The classes have been designed to cater to distinct and diverse needs, requirements of students which will also help in the refinement of their skills. Under the guidance of the Principal, Dr Datta, faculty from various departments are leading the sessions and ensuring individualised attention on each student. The headmasters of all the three blocks are actively engaged to foster the smooth and successful run of these classes.

Round Square Postcard Event

Modern School, Barakhamba Road, has always put emphasis on rendering holistic education and motivating students to be the informed citizens of the world. The ideals of Round Square are embedded in the very ethos of the school. Keeping the same in mind, Modern School Students participated in a Round Square Postcard Event, on 17th April, 2024. It was organised by the Ashbury College, Canada on theme, “Round Square Brainbash”.

The Modern School Delegation comprised Ananya Singh(X B), Sauvik Jain (X B), Vyan Aggarwal(X B), Rhythma Rewal(X C), Amaira Jain(X F) and Nandini Khanna(X F). The students were accompanied and mentored by the

Round Square Representative, Modern School, Ms Shalini Dahiya. The meeting started off with an enriching discussion on the ideals of round square, namely: Internationalism, Democracy, Environmentalism, Adventure, Leadership and Service. Later on, the delegates were divided into Baraza groups where they competed against each other in various quizzes on politics, history, and sports. The students had a fruitful and empowering experience from the conference.

Virtual Exchange Programme with Scarsdale High School, New York

The Scarsdale High School, New York, organised a Virtual Exchange with Modern School, Barakhamba Road, as a part of Round Square on 15th April, 2024. The objective of the exchange was the introduction of the two schools. It also aimed at looking for similarities and differences between the two schools and the college environment in the respective countries.

Modern School Delegation comprised Tanay Jalan(XII A), Poorna Tewari(XII A), Ishaani Agarwal(XII J), Bhavya Khanchandani(XII F), Shreyas Bansal(XII F), Raghav Singhal (XII G), Kush Mittal(XII F), Syna Mehra(XII I), Ria Devika Bhasin(XII I), Avishi Gupta(XII F), Unnati Kapoor(XII G), Siddharth Veer Sawhney(XII F), Pranav Sharma(XII C), Aamanya Jindal(XII B) and Shanaya Bhasin(XII I). The session invited participants to interact through the medium of an anonymous survey. The questionnaire contained aspects related to the usage of social media in today's times. It also emphasised on the importance of relieving academic stress and several significant aspects connected to Round Square ideals. The students spoke about different activities conducted in school such as Sportability and mentioned about the Clubs and Societies that play an important role in the holistic development. They also shared their views on the education system, ending by giving personal experiences and perspectives about standing up in this competitive world. The experience proved to be both educational and enlightening for the students. It helped them gain valuable insights for their future.
