day before, with the winners being announced during the camp. These artistic pursuits highlighted the vibrant creativity of the students and added a festive touch to the proceedings. The 2024 Blood Donation Camp proved to be an inspiring triumph, with the collection of 62 units of blood. The event underscored the profound significance of blood donation- not only as a means of immediate aid but as a reinforcement of the healthcare system's resilience. The success of the camp is a testament to the unwavering commitment of the students, faculty, and community, whose enthusiastic participation in this humanitarian endeavour remains deeply commendable.

CRAFTING EXCELLENCE: TRIUMPHS IN SCULPTURE & CLAY MODELLING

"The aim of art is to represent not the outward appearance of things, but their inward significance."

- Aristotle

On 20th September 2024, Lady Irwin School, New Delhi, hosted the District-Level Sculpture/Clay Modelling Competition. Four students from Modern School, Barakhamba Road-Stuti Singh(10-C), Naitik Kanojia(10-E), Farhan Akhtar(8-B), and Akshita Rani(7-D) participated under the guidance of Mr. Somesh Singh. All of them had earned their places by excelling at the zonal level. The competition allowed participants three hours to bring their creative vision to life. The atmosphere buzzed with excitement as students immersed themselves in their creations, translating vivid ideas into expressive forms. The competition not only achieved its goal of fostering artistic expression but also provided a platform for these young artists to showcase their skills. Naitik Kanojia(10-E) performed exceptionally well, winning the First Prize in the Boys' Senior category, earning him a spot in the State-Level competition. The experience was both refreshing and engaging, offering students a constructive outlet to exhibit their talents. Modern School's students took full advantage of this opportunity, displaying great enthusiasm and artistic passion.

EXCELLENCE IN DEBATE: MODERN SCHOOL SHINES AT DISTRICT LEVEL

On 21st September, 2024, Salwan Public School played host to the prestigious District-Level Cultural Debate Competition, gathering the most accomplished debaters from schools across the district. Modern School, Barakhamba Road, proudly fielded two teams—one in the Senior Girls' category and another in the Senior Boys' category—following their impressive qualification at the zonal level under the expert mentorship of Ms Meghna Kapoor. The Senior Girls' team, represented by Ishaani Agarwal (12-J) and Kavya Sharma (12-J), alongside the Senior Boys' team, consisting of Devasya Agarwal (11-A) and Kabir Gupta (11-C), showcased a remarkable display of intellectual dexterity, strategic thinking, and eloquence. Throughout the competition, both teams engaged in rigorous debates, addressing contemporary and thought-provoking issues with meticulously researched arguments and incisive rebuttals. Their poise, articulation, and cohesive teamwork left an indelible impression on the judges and audience alike. The Senior Girls' team emerged triumphant, securing the First Place in their category, while the Senior Boys' team delivered a formidable performance, earning a well-deserved Second Place. Both teams have now advanced to the State-Level Debate Competition, where they will once again represent Modern School on a broader stage. Their stellar achievements at the district level stand as a testament to their diligence, preparation, and mastery of debate. As they proceed to the state competition, they carry with them the pride of their school community and the determination to extend their success further.

PUNEET JAKHAR: A BUDDING EQUESTRIAN STAR

Puneet Jakhar (8-E), a promising young rider, once again showcased his exceptional talent at multiple equestrian events, earning accolades and bringing pride to Modern School. His remarkable performances are a testament to his unwavering dedication, relentless efforts, and disciplined approach to the sport.
