TAGORE HOUSE FUNCTION

The Tagore House Biennial House Function took place on 19th April, 2024, graced by the esteemed presence of Mr Pramod Sharma, Vice President of Genesis Global School and Former Principal of Mayo College Ajmer. Under the inspiring theme of "Love over Hatred," the event commenced with a captivating dance performance, paying homage to Lord Ganesh through the Ganesh Vandana. This was seamlessly followed by an enchanting orchestral rendition of Raag Bihag, setting the stage for the evening's highlight - a mesmerizing ballet inspired by the enchanting tales of Arabian Nights. Centered around the theme of "Love over Hatred," the ballet portrayed the forbidden love between Aladdin and Jasmine, as well as the bonds forged amidst the turmoil of war. Each scene unfolded with a powerful display of passion and resilience, underscoring the indomitable spirit of humanity in the face of adversity. As the plot unravelled, the triumph of kindness over cruelty, of good over evil, and of love over hatred was illuminated, casting a radiant light that pierced through the darkness of ignorance. The evening reached its crescendo with the heartfelt rendition of the House Song, "Ekla Cholo Re," a timeless anthem whose enduring message of hope and empowerment continues to resonate across generations. Sung with utmost devotion by the House, it served as a fitting tribute to the illustrious Bard of Bengal, Rabindranath Tagore, encapsulating his vision of unity and compassion in a world fraught with uncertainty and strife. The Chief Guest, Mr Pramod Sharma, offered words of encouragement and support. The Biennial Tagore House Function was indeed a great success. The spectacular show was put up under the guidance of Ms Sapna Bhargava, Ms Sujata Sharma and Ms Shivpriya Mathur.
