IPSC DANCE FEST 2025- WHEN RHYTHM SPEAKS LOUDER THAN WORDS

Dance is the hidden language of the soul — and from 13th to 16th August, 2025, that language was spoken with passion, precision, and pride as Modern Barakhamba, participated in the prestigious IPSC Dance Fest 2025, hosted by Rajmata Krishna Kumari Girls' Public School, Jodhpur. Fifteen talented students, accompanied by Mr Arindam Das Gupta (Dance Teacher) and Ms Indu Sangwan, proudly represented the school across four major categories: Classical Duet, Western Dance, Folk Dance, and the expressive narrative form Tatha Katha. Each performance was a celebration of rhythm, tradition, innovation, and storytelling — all woven into mesmerizing choreography. The four-day cultural extravaganza was not merely a competition but a rich confluence of artistic expression, cultural exchange, and collaborative learning. Participants from leading IPSC schools across the country came together not only to compete, but to connect — through rehearsals, dance workshops, and evening cultural programs that showcased the diversity and depth of India's performing arts heritage. Classical Duet performers, Saanvi Jain and Reet Bhatia, were lauded with the coveted Dynamic Duo Award for their seamless synchrony and expressive grace. Meanwhile, the Western Dance Ensemble earned the Excellence in Costume and Style Award, a testament to their striking stage presence, impeccable styling, and captivating choreography.

The IPSC Dance Fest 2025 was a memorable journey of movement, meaning, and mutual respect — and delegates returned not just with applause and accolades, but with a deeper love for the performing arts.
